City Manager's Report:

City Manager Carl DeForest

- Mr. DeForest had reached out to Phyllis and Bob Siedler, the directors of the Brunswick Food Pantry, and asked for information and an update on their current needs. The Brunswick Food Pantry had distributed 93 shopping carts of food to the community on December 8th, in which those carts provided a three day supply of food for 274 individuals; including 75 children, 67 seniors, at 9 meals per person. A total of 2466 meals were provided. The pantry operates completely on donations and volunteers; as a 501(c)(3), non-profit organization. The organization wanted to thank all of the individuals, organizations, churches, and businesses that have supported them. They had also expressed gratitude to City Hall for the blue bins in the entrance for people to leave donations.

- For more information on the current needs or if residents know anyone that are in need of food, please contact the Brunswick Food Pantry by going to their website; brunswickfoodpantry.org.
- Mr. DeForest encouraged people of the community to consider making a generous donation of food that would help provide for people at this difficult time around the holidays, as the year comes to an end.
- Brian Ousley concurred with Mr. DeForest, stating that this was why Council continues to remind people about the Brunswick Food Pantry and its importance to the community.

Unfinished Business:

There was none.

New Business:

Mr. Delsanter offered his condolences and support to the Ortiz family, whereas Barb Ortiz lost her husband Mario, a man of great faith and great talent. Mr. Delsanter encouraged Council to offer their condolences and support to the family at this time.
