THE CITY OF BRUNSWICK

PROPOSED MOTION

DATE: 6/22/2026

TO: Vice Mayor Nicholas Hanek and Members of City Council

FROM: Carl S. DeForest, City Manager
Gia D'Amico

COPY: Mayor Ron Falconi

MOTION: Motion to go out to bid for custodial services for the Brunswick Community Recreation and Fitness Center and the Police Department/City Hall.

BACKGROUND: City Council authorized our current custodial contract via Resolution#93-2023. The current three-year custodial service contract expires on February 28, 2027.

PURPOSE AND EXPLANATION: We need a contractor to provide custodial services for the Brunswick Community Recreation Center and the Police Department/City Hall. It does not need to be the same vendor for both locations. They are separate bids.

IMPLEMENTATION SCHEDULE: Would like to enter into a three (3) year contract with a vendor. The current contract expires February 28, 2027.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

FINANCIAL SUMMARY: All costs are subject to bid result analysis and future Council appropriations. State Law requires sufficient appropriations to be in place prior to a contract being signed and paid.

Custodial costs for the Recreation Center are currently charged to 131-0830-54260. The costs for City Hall and the Division of Police are split up based on square footage. City Hall's square footage of 22,561 sq ft, or 64.46%, of the total contract is charged to account 001-0441-54260 and the Division of Police has a square footage of 12,439 sq ft, or 35.54%, of the total of the contract is charged to 114-0520-54260.
